

Winter Solstice Schedule of Events

10:30AM-Noon

- Walk in the winter woods
- Learn to Morris Dance

(Traditional English dances and songs coordinated by Ethan Hay, Nova Albion Morris, Marin County)

Noon-4PM (in the plaza)*

- Make a Coho-ho hat
- Weave a Solstice crown
- Create a Solstice wreath
- Make special art projects with storyteller Ane Carla Rovetta
- Seasonal music by the Loosely Knits at the Visitor Center

Noon-4PM (in the woods)*

- Enjoy a story with John Muir at 1PM and 3PM
- Listen to the wondrous sounds of the forest with Dan Dugan's special ears at the crosscut
- Walk in the winter woods with a ranger

4:30PM Light the Ceremonial Fire and Luminaria

5PM Join rangers for songs and a special program

5:30PM Quietly say goodnight to the forest

For safety, leave the driving to the Muir Woods Shuttle. Visit www.marintransit.org for times and locations. Don't forget to dress in warm layers.

Please note, events in the plaza are free. Donations welcome.
If walking in the woods, entrance fee applies.

